TEACHER LOST AFTER MYSTERIOUS CAR CRASH

Is his Death connected to his secret Report for "the Sun"?

(Mr N. in front of "the Sun"-office in July 2005)

Yesterday night at about 1am a red bus crashed into the Glan. Neighbours reported about a lot of noise and some masked guys, that drove away with squealing tires.

Police officers told us, no body was found and perhaps it was flushed away by the river. Pupils on his school reported, they wouldn't wonder about this. He was often absent from school and there were rumours he would work for "The Sun" in a secret mission.

Philipp W., lost in tears because of his favourite teacher's disappearance, cried: "Will we ever see him alive again?"
